

Would you like to know more about the European Union and its relationship with the Western Balkans' countries?

Are you interested in the future of the relations between your country and the European Community?

Would you like to get to know better the importance of the Visegrad cooperation and its Central European traditions?

Would you like to broaden your knowledge with exciting extracurricular activities in an amusing atmosphere among 15 other young people?

If your answer to these questions is yes, our summer university will be a perfect opportunity to deepen your knowledge.

The International Centre for Democratic Transition (ICDT)

- with the support of the International Visegrad Fund - offers you the opportunity to participate in the Summer Seminar for Young Leaders of the Western Balkans

What we offer:

- A one-week seminar between July 14, 2013 and July 21, 2013 with high-qualified lecturers and speakers in Budapest, the beautiful capital of Hungary.
- A variety of extracurricular activities to make your stay in Hungary more active and interesting.
- An inspiring atmosphere and a great chance to get involved in a network that is going to help you to improve your professional career.
- Selected participants can get a full scholarship to reimburse travel, accommodation and catering costs.

What we look for:

- Prominently motivated university students with ongoing or recently finished MA studies in International Relations or Political and Social Sciences, possessing the following virtues:
- Interest in European studies, basic knowledge on the European Union;
- Interest or experience in working with NGOs is an advantage (but not obligatory);
- Willingness and courage to share personal opinion in different matters related to the topic of the seminar.

If you find our offer attractive, please send your CV with a photo and a motivation letter via e-mail to Mirwais Janan at m.janan@icdt.hu and Ágnes Novák at a.novak@icdt.hu.

Deadline: April 30, 2013

We look forward to meeting you in July.
